FOREWORD

AT THE REQUEST OF THE NATIONAL SOCIETY, DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the organization is being celebrated by individual chapters through the initiation of local "jubilee projects." The jubilee project of Tawasentha Chapter was undertaken at the instigation of our late beloved Regent, Mrs. Eli S. Persons, who was deeply interested in an effort so to locate and describe the sites of graves of Revolutionary soldiers in our three townships, marked and unmarked, cared for and abandoned, that their memory could not become completely effaced. The work has been loyally encouraged and promoted by her successor, Mrs. Frederic G. Schifferdecker, in whose regency it is brought to completion.

The list of graves enumerated is not regarded in any sense as complete. In fact, it is hoped that as an aftermath of this recording additional sites will come to light and greater interest will be stimulated in those still to be discovered, as well as in those already known.

Included under four pilgrimages are 126 graves—three in the town of Guilderland with records of graves of 67 soldiers and a fourth pilgrimage in the towns of New Scotland and Bethlehem townships with records of 59 soldiers' graves. The graves are numbered consecutively according to the route taken, and exact mileages have been clocked from grave to grave. There are two maps recording accurately the location of each grave and alphabetical keys to the names of Revolutionary soldiers.

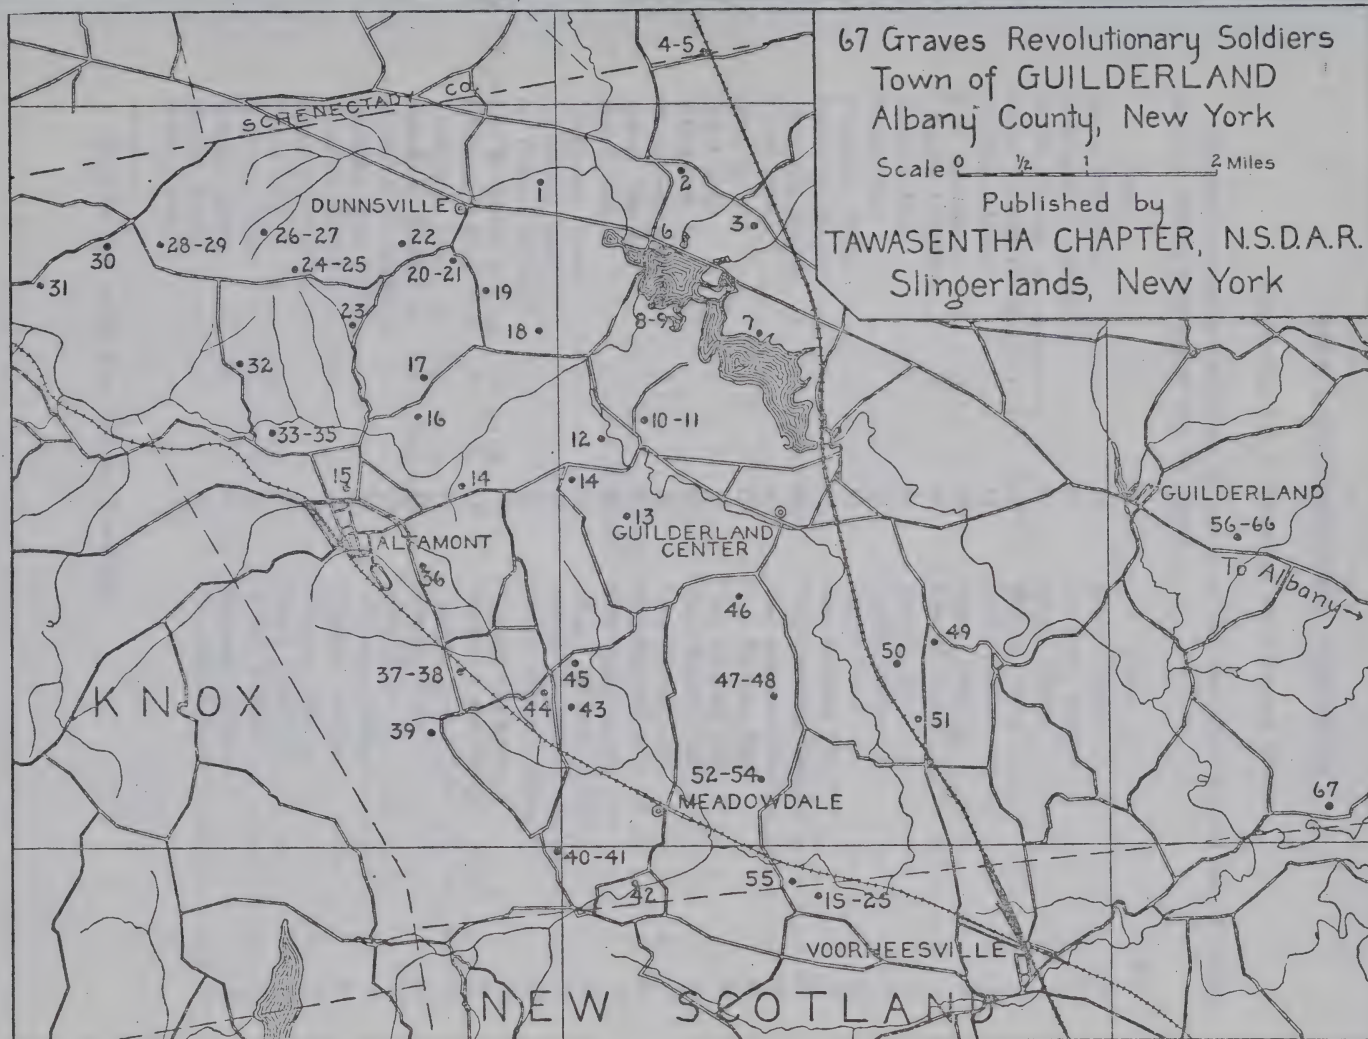

Without the assistance of William A. Brinkman of Dunnsville, whose life interest in local history has resulted in methodical records and faithful recollection, our recording for the town of Guilderland would not have been possible. For the towns of New Scotland and Bethlehem, the N.S.D.A.R. records compiled 1927-32 by Miss Grace Slingerland, Tawasentha Chapter Historian, were likewise of great value.

EDITH MUNSELL HARTNAGEL

Chairman.
